

Name: Pastor Kingsley Ababio Church: Still Waters Bible Church

Testimony:

I was brought up by a single parent, and had the privilege of receiving godly training from my mother. From the very beginning I was taught to love God and to try to please Him at all times. This has stayed with me throughout my life. That is not to say I have not strayed away from time to time. As a teenager, I had slipped out of the “sight of God” to go and find out what the world had to offer. My conclusion: vanity of vanities. I hardly found comfort in the things of the world that many of my peers found attractive. Today I look at the lives of most of these people, who back then thought a young godly person was out of touch with reality, and I know I chose what was right and owe that to the grace of God that found me and to a now 84 year old godly woman – my mother. Even today, I have failed many times more than I have pleased Him, but even in my weakness, I know that God’s presence is home, a place where I feel safe and forgiven.

Family:

I am married to a lovely wife Patience Ababio, and we are blessed with four wonderful children, three girls and a boy: Tracy, Jake, Shika, and Elikhem

My Current Responsibilities:

I am senior Pastor at Still Waters Bible Church, and Dean of Students and lecturer at CFCBI.

My plans for outreach and growth in 2013:

To win and establish at least 20 people to Christ this year. I intend to read at least one good book every month.

My Favorite Praise & Worship Song:

Forever Grateful

Favorite Bible Passage:

1 Thess. 5:24: Faithful is He that has called you, who also will do it.

My Favorite Subject to teach:

Bible Study

Favorite foods:

Fufu with goat light soup, rice and greens, fruit juices, and pastries.

Something many people don’t know about me:

That sometimes I cry.
