

Ray & Rosetta Miller

We live in Northern Indiana and attend Roselawn Mennonite Church. We have three children and six grandchildren. Presently I serve as an elder at church, teach a men's Sunday School class occasionally, and serve on the Sunday evening program committee. My wife Rosetta teaches the ladies Sunday School class and is active with the ladies sewing activities once a month. She also organizes the church bulletins each week. We enjoy doing some traveling. Our trip to Africa in 2006 was a highlight for us as we got to see first handily how the Ray Weaver and Tim Singenstreu family are involved in the ministry. We took a trip out west this summer for a couple of weeks. I have enjoyed the time that I have served on the CFC board, interacting with the missionaries on the field, and seeing the growth in the outreach over the years.
